GIRL WHO DIVED TO TRACK NOT BADLY HURT

Miss Fuessell, Victim of Melancholia, Plunged from Railroad Bridge.

(Special to The Evening World.)
MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., June 2.— It developed to-day that Miss Mary Christian Fuessell, the pretty brunette and heiress to considerable money, who leaped from the Third Avenue bridge over the New Haven Railroad in an attempt to fall in front of a New Haven Express train, and who is now a prisoner in the Mount Vernon Hospital on a charge of attempting suicide, has been suffering from melancholia for a long time. Detective Atwell said to-day he was told Miss Fuessell had spent six months in a sanatorium.
The actual reason for Miss Fuessell leaving to end her life is still a mystery to the police. It was first reported that she had been disappointed in a love affair, and that a prominent young man had jilted her, but Mrs. C. G. Mac-Kenzie, of No. 40 South Fifth Avenue, where Miss Fuessell boarded, said today that the girl was not in love.
"She had been suffering from mel-ancholia," said Mrs. MacKenzie. "She was affected with a nervous disorder and had been under the care of a New York doctor for a long time. Miss Fuessell had been boarding with me for five weeks. She was a personal friend of mine and I know what I am talking about. Several times I have warned her from doing something dangerous by cheering her up."
Many Saw Girl Jump.
Her mother and sister's family lived in Tremont, but recently they moved to Brooklyn, and I really do not know their address now. What Miss Fuessell said when she left the house yesterday will not say. That is a secret which must not be revealed.
Every attempt is being made to survive the girl would be suicide with mystery. When Miss Fuessell made her leap from the high bridge over the tracks she was walking with Miss Bernstein, a pretty school teacher. Many commuters and passengers on trolley cars saw the girl suddenly drop behind Miss Bernstein, then she herself upon the guard rail on the bridge and with a scream plunged down to the tracks, twenty feet below.
Fuller she turned a somersault and the back struck on the outside rail of the track.
Girl Not Seriously Hurt.

the Manufacturer's Cost,

A Veritable Landslide in Men's Shirt Values!

We have purchased 20,000 Negligee Shirts from the foremost New York shirt factory. These shirts are the cancelled orders from concerns not able to take them on account of the backward season—also the manufacturer's odd lots. We have bought them at practically our own price, which means

35c for Shirts worth 50c, 75c and $1.00 at 35c

The materials are of French and American plain and corded percales and madras cloth—assorted patterns, in light and dark effects, neat figures and stripes—in fact, every desirable weave and pattern is here. Made with neckband, and most all with separate cuffs. They are in every detail strictly first-class—sizes 14 to 17. To make selecting easy, we give separate tables to the various sizes. Many extra salespeople to serve you quickly—no delays, no disappointments. Sale starts Saturday at 8 o'clock.

WANTED TO SWIM HOME.

John Judge Told the Court an Odd Story and Was Released.

John Judge, thirty-nine years old, a laborer, of Twenty-seventh Street and Tenth Avenue, was to-day arraigned in the Morrisania Court before Magistrate Baker by Patrolman Dugan, of the Kingsbridge station. Dugan found Judge at midnight on a dock near Riverdale Avenue. He had his shoes off, and Dugan feared he was about to jump into the river. Judge told Dugan that he had walked from Barrytown and was tired and thought he would swim the rest of the way home.

Judge told the Court to-day that he only remembered he was tired. He promised to go directly home if discharged, and the Court released him.
